How Children Change the World. Tasks and Trivia

Author: Katarzyna Sowula Illustrator: Katarzyna Kołodziej

Or what a Spanish infantas (meaning princesses) wore? What did children play with in the past? What do little residents of the Arctic eat? Can children earn money? Have kids always had to go to school? When was a girl the king of Poland? What does it mean to "throw the baby out with the bathwater"? Who was the greatest musical child genius?

Find the answers to these and many other questions in this amazing book about children. Apart from the trivia, the book contains plenty of interactive tasks. Design your own emoticons with us; become an encyclopaedist; create a poster with a map of a country you'd like to visit; write a letter to politicians telling them what adults should do to make sure children are safe and happy; choose some artefacts and plan an exhibition using the curator's notebook; set up a time bank with your friends; draw your own dream-catcher; and join in the Great World Wide Star Count!

Ewa and Paweł Pawlak's Small Atlas of Birds

Authors and illustrators: Ewa Kozyra-Pawlak, Paweł Pawlak

Ewa and Paweł, who are both well-known Polish illustrators, describe the winged residents of their garden in this amazing bird book. They use breathtaking watercolours and pictures made out of colourful rags to tell us about tree sparrows, blackbirds, magpies, long-tailed tits, goldfinches, jays, woodpeckers, starlings, greenfinches, nuthatches... the world conjured up by Ewa and Paweł is full of poetry and humour. It will surely encourage all of us readers, children and grown-ups alike, to create our own books of birds we see every day, and to love them and talk about them in our own way: by drawing, cutting things out and pasting things in, collecting feathers, adventures and anecdotes...

Hey, Jimmy! Are You Looking For Trouble?

Author: Rafał Skarżycki Illustrator: Tomasz Lew Leśniak

Who said that ten is the best age for an adventure?

In Jimmy's company, there's one thing you need not fear - boredom! Except for this, though, anything else is very possible. You'd better stay on your toes!

If you think people gladly accept the help they're offered, you're so wrong. Especially when it comes to help in losing weight.

Not to mention joining in to solve crimes. And Jimmy, of all people, has a wealth of experience in this matter! This is why he's not giving up so easily. Find out for ourselves if he's right to be so stubborn!

Dlatego cicho zamykam za sobą drzwi w moim pokoju i naprawdę biorę do ręki książkę. Nie żebym nie lubił czytać, ale w konsoli mam załadowaną nowiutką gierkę. Ludzi sukcesu charakteryzuje jednak silna wola i... potrafią ustalać priorytety.

Also in this series:

Zula and the Kidnapping of Spot

Hi, I'm Zula. My grandma, Liliana the Great Witch, invited me to join the real school of witches, where they teach you amazing things like flying, disappearing and herbalism. Sounds great, doesn't it?

And that's just for starters! My new friends, Matilda and her squirrel, will suddenly disappear. I'm sure you know who will face many dangers during the search for them... and finally, I will invite you to a genuine Halloween with pooey biscuits.

So, are you interested?

While I'm gone, my aunties Hela and Mela and my friends Kai and Max will try to prevent the mayor from destroying the Wild Strawberry Meadow. What tricks will they use?

Zula the witch is a book series about a funny and plucky nine-year-old who discovers her magical abilities completely by chance. At the beginning, she's not sure how to use her powers wisely, but she'll eventually learn what to do. This is also a story of friendship, tolerance and the importance of helping others.

Not only little girls will love this series!

- To dzielo samej przyrody - zaśmiała się Hela. – Wiosną i latem liście są niczym fabryka, która produkuje potrzebne drzewom substancje. A wiesz, gdzie się je wytwarza? - Wiem! - pochwalila się Zula. - W komórkach zawierających chlorofil, uczyła nas tego pani Arleta. Mela skinęła glowa

> 00 0

- A jaki kolor ma chlorofil?

- Zielony!

- Właśnie tak. Kiedy jednak nadchodzi jesień, spada temperatura, a dzień staje się coraz krótszy, drzewa muszą się przygotować na nadejście najmniej przyjemnego dla nich okresu, czyli zimy. Rezygnują wtedy ze wszystkiego, czego nie potrzebują, a zatem głównie z liści. Ale zanim je całkowicie zrzucą, przebierają się w te swoje kolorowe sukienki i zachwycają wszystkich dookola. Łącznie z naszym burmistrzem.

Dziewczynka zamknęła oczy i wciągnęła nosem powietrze. Poziomkowo pachniało słońcem, wiatrem, dymem z ogniska i rajskimi jabluszkami rosnącymi w ogrodzie ciotek.

Author and illustrator: Ewa Kozyra-Pawlak

An educational and heart-warming story for the very young. Ewa Kozyra-Pawlak's catchy verses and lovely embroidered illustrations introduce toddlers to counting, improve their perceptiveness and make them more sensitive.

Ten homeless puppies read an ad: "I'll adopt a dog, or maybe a couple...". Each puppy wants to have a home of their own, so they hurry to the address from the ad. But at the end all of them get adopted by a very lonely gentleman! From then on their new owner can count the dogs each night, instead of counting sheep.

Mr and Mrs Racoon like things to be squeaky clean. They clean and wash everything non-stop, but they also have something to worry about: their children get awfully dirty. Whatever the parents wash, the baby racoons stain with mud or something greasy. They also make a terrible mess. Is there anything that could make the two worlds come together? Something that would make the children clean (at least from time to time) and the parents let their hair down a bit?

Baby Racoons is a lovely, embroidered family story about white and colour washes and about how everything has its proper time and space.
