Agnieszka Stelmazyk

When she was a little girl, she wanted to become a doctor, an archeologist or even a painter. It took her a while to understand that she would make her best as a writer. Her first writing success was in 2007, and since then she has not stopped writing great books for teens and children.

IMAGINARIUM

Action and adventure duology set in a steampunk world

Meet Marianna – a girl who prefers welding torch and screwdriver over dolls and pretty dresses. She spends days in her workshop constructing amazing machines. One day her father sends her and her best friend Milo on a trip to France to meet her aunt Isabell Sorel. Marianna is not very happy about that, but one day, deep inside the basement under the aunt's old residence she discovers a strange door leading to...

Most of his ideas come to mind on... a train. He simply cannot get away from them. He is very well known in Poland as a fantasy book writer. For years he used to write for adults. He started to love writing for younger readers from the very first word he wrote. His magical stories about Tappi, a charming Viking, delighted not only the young, but also their parents.

The Royal Cards

Gripping fantasy novel for adults and teenagers

First part of the new series by Marcin Mortka. In the first volume you will witness magic, plots, deceits and a struggle for power over New Mandyllion. You have come to the right place if you are looking for a story with a twist. Prepare to meet elves, spectres and druids.

Inhabitants of the kingdom of Mandyllion are forced to leave their homes by the unknown, unstoppable Darkness. Little do they know that they will encounter new adversities once they settle in a distant land of Taliada. What is more, the young Tankerd Hanstar soon discovers that two noble houses are plotting against each other. Something must have happened to the Royal Cards – an ancient artefact that guaranteed peace between the houses.

Secrets of the Ocean

It is said that the ocean has many secrets... It is true! And a small turtle will help you discover them all!

The young turtle had many questions... How many teeth does a shark have? Which fish swims the fastest? How many arms does an octopus have? Why does a blowfish blow up so much? What is the biggest animal in the ocean? And what is the smallest? The answers for these and other questions may be found in a new picture book illustrated by Monika Filipina.

Anna
Sobich-Kamińska

A huge fan of the sea, traveling, Agatha Christie's crime novels, oranges, the smell of lilacs and tea. She enjoys learning and holds a degree in biology. Her free time is occupied with taking photos, playing board games, reading and creating. If she could be a book character, she would choose a witch from Discworld or a Hogwarts student. Anna collects memories, good ideas and Lego minifigures (as well as many other things), and believes that they will all come in handy at some point.

Monika
