Phil, the protagonist, is a twelve year old boy living in Manhattan, and he's a very interesting guy who believes in fantasy too much. He is a young and talented nerd, an intellectual who likes to spend his days with his friends, known as The Geek Team. He loves Loren, but he also knows that he could never compete with Ted, Loren's boyfriend. One night, while Phil, the nerd, is sleeping the Star Wars character Darth Vader appears to him like a vision, inviting him to use his strength to challenge the bullies and finally win the love of Loren.

DIARY OF A NERD is a hilarious book consisting of two different diaries written by the same kid: one is the diary of a young genius, and the other is a quest for love. Nerds are the main characters of this comical illustrated book. Readers from all over the world love the crazy adventures of The Geek Team and Phil, the nerdy protagonist, has earned a cult following all over the world.

THE WRITER

The bestselling author is published in 40 countries. Philip Osbourne is a writer from Portsmouth, NH.

For many years he has been working on movie screenplays and comic books for the American market (among them, "Jenna" with Jim Fern and Joe Rubinstein, and with the original score by Iron Maiden's Paul Di Anno), articles for Cinema magazines ("Empire") and pitches for movie projects together with Film Guru Brian Yuzna. Osbourne's books are published in 40 countries (Italy, France, Turkey, USA, Germany, Poland, Russia, Romania, Brazil, China, Portugal, Albania, Serbia, etc.) Philip Osbourne is now the author of the official books "Harry & Bunnie" and "ABC Monster", two cartoons produced by Animasia.

Diary of Nerd will soon be a cartoon for the international markets. Young Poe will be a TV series and Edward Loth a new movie by Keller Production in Los Angeles. The success of the books continue in TV and in movies.

AN INNOVATIVE URBAN FANTASY

There are invisible cities, known as hidden cities. They're real, but concealed. You won't find them on Google Maps, but they exist. Our governments built them to design horrible atomic bombs, weapons and even – some say – to hide aliens! At least, that's what the usual conspiracy theorists think. But the truth is that they are simply secret cities. And the world knows nothing or little about them. One of these invisible cities, hidden even to satellites, is Corman 77. Built far from prying eyes in the middle of the forest, it's surrounded by barbed wire and soldiers protecting it. But who lives in this city? Undoubtedly an order of scientists chosen by the government to create the Sacred in the lab: young boys and girls who can protect the cathedral from any attack thanks to their magical powers.

ALMOND & IAC DESIGN PARTNERSHIP

ARMANDO CURCIO INSTITUTE

The Armando Curcio Institute was established in December 2014 thanks to the happy intuition of Cristina Siciliano, Vice President of the Editorial Group Armando Curcio Spa. It was created to develop and promote excellence in the area of Higher Education. The project stands out for its original didactic offer, for its breadth and depth, and is provided by university professors and by top national and international experts who are recognized in their professional field. The educational plan is aimed at an audience of graduates and university students with the goal of structuring both their personal and professional development and their own effective and lasting position in the labor market; to graduates, managers, professionals and entrepreneurs in order to perfect or integrate their professional paths and objectives.

Armando Curcio & Almond Project Partnership

The Italian publishing house Armando Curcio Editore and the Armando Curcio Institute have a partnership with the Almond Project for the iconographic share of the novel Corman 77, written by Philip Osbourne. A unique project that involves training professionals in the world of illustration & graphics, to be inserted directly in an international setting. The Armando Curcio Institute, with Mauro Ortolani for the artistic direction, has created the cover, logo and internal illustrations of "Corman 77". "We all need opportunities and to exchange ideas and visions. This project satisfies everyone, the writer, who illustrates and the trainers. Certainly it is a good way to create works with a diverse group of artists, sometimes far from my way of imagining and visualizing. The artistic direction of Mauro Ortolani and the freshness of the young students will give the project a special soul, and that is what every author is looking for," concluded Philip Osbourne.

THE STORY

In the Sacred Ten group, Barry is the chosen one, but he has not passed the exam and therefore still lives in the city. When the Sacred Ten are attacked and destroyed by the Crashes, Barry understands his mission, goes back in time to stop the Crashes from stealing Hitler for their evil plan. With magic blows and an epic battle, he fights against the Crashes. Thus begins the battle that will write a new page of history.

CORMAN 77

Corman 77 was founded by the government to protect the Gale Cathedral of Time, which resides in the center of the town. From it people can move back and forth between different time periods.

In Corman 77, there lives an order of scientists selected by the government with the purpose of creating The Sacred Ten in the laboratory—a group of children who protect the Gale Cathedral with their magic from potential attacks or danger.
