THE TV SERIES

2021: THE YEAR OF THE
NERD: ON TV AND IN BOOKSTORES.

Phil, the protagonist, is a twelve year old boy living in Manhattan, and he's a very interesting guy who believes in fantasy too much. He is a young and talented nerd, an intellectual who likes to spend his days with his friends, known as The Geek Team. He loves Loren, but he also knows that he could never compete with Ted, Loren's boyfriend. One night, while Phil, the nerd, is sleeping the Star Wars character Darth Vader appears to him like a vision, inviting him to use his strength to challenge the bullies and finally win the love of Loren.

Martin penso' che al mondo jurassico servisse uno store come Amazon. Ma sarebbe stato difficile aprire un negozio on line senza prima inventare un personal computer. Ma tutto questo cosa c'entrava con i tirannosauri? Nulla! Ma un computer serviva sempre. Magari Martin avrebbe potuto guardare Netflix la sera, dopo i combattimenti con gli Pterosauri. In quel momento comprese che prima di ogni cosa avrebbe dovuto inventare la ruota. Ma prima ancora doveva tentare di parlare con tirannosauri per farli credere che anche loro erano vegetariani.

Non doveva essere difficile!

THE BOOK THAT WILL MAKE YOU
REGRET ANY OTHER BOOK.

Martin is a mischievous little boy and is back from prehistoric times. Nobody believes him and everyone swaps Pitch, his T-Rex puppy, for a little dog. Martin's babysitter, exhausted by his insolence, loads him on a rocket and sends him into space ... here Martin is confused by the Martians with the "chosen one" that will have to save them from a galactic battle. Of course, Martin the rascal doesn't back down. Too bad he's not a real hero ... Martin is also the protagonist of "Jurassik Diaries". In this new illustrated novel, he finds himself experiencing an adventure in pure sci-fi style, obviously with comedy tones. This saga is narratively independent from "Jurassik Diaries".

Two little inventors to the rescue

A new book series by Philip Osbourne

The Story

Sissy is angry with the world, because of a great sorrow she has endured. With “Kirby”, her magic pencil, she draws little monsters that become real. Principal Rump “enlists” her on his team to carry out his evil plans. Pin and Puk, two mischievous little inventors with a penchant for trouble, will save the middle school and the world. No one believes they have the skills and means to fight the monsters, but they will succeed with their inventions and their laughter.

About the idea...

"I decided to create Pin and Puk after my father died of Coronavirus. Of course, ugly "monsters" have been haunting me at night, until creativity helped me... and brought a smile back. "Pin and Puk" is a tribute to invention and to those who seek solutions with a smile. Pin and Puk are two rascals, they are not geniuses, they do not do well at school and they are not popular... nobody believes in them. However, they understand that the funny but spiteful monsters, created by Sissy and the Principal, can be stopped if they both use their creativity and strength.... They don't need anyone else to know... they just need to spark their creativity. They will create robots by taking washing machines apart... and by sacrificing their bicycles. Pin and Puk are happy little creatures... and they will try to understand why Sissy is always angry instead. You can be happy with just a flower in your hand... that's the spirit of Pin & Puk".

ANDY WARHOL

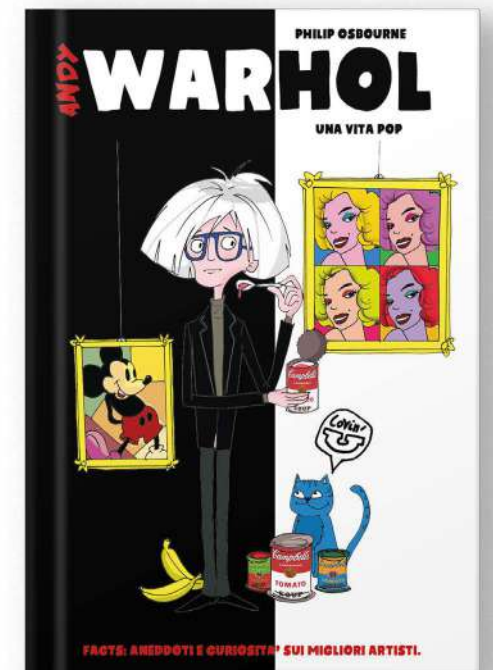

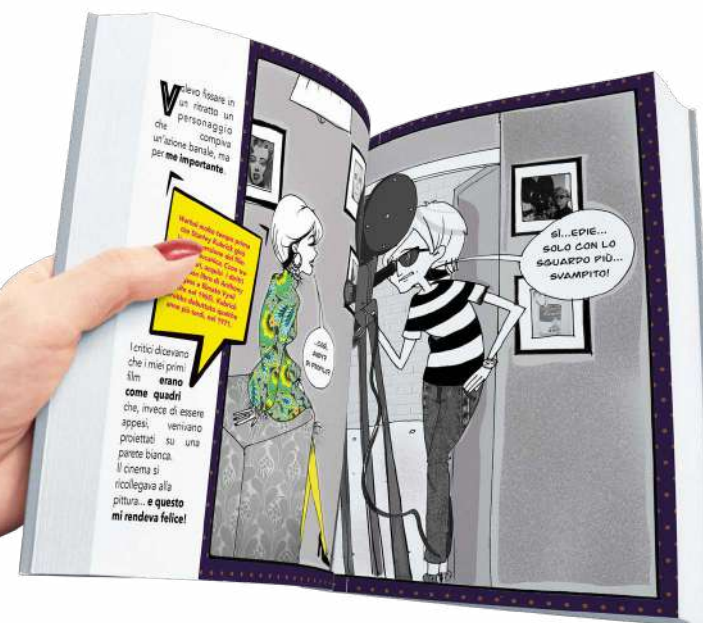

The best artists

FUN FACTS are 6 unofficial novels about the lives of the greatest artists in the world's history. They carry out an "educational" function, but always maintain a funny and curious tone.

The Book Series

Andy Warhol, Keith Haring, Frida Kahlo, Pablo Picasso, Van Gogh and Salvador Dalí are the stars of the first six volumes of the FUN FACTS series.

The lives of the greatest artists from the past are recreated in a fun yet educational tone. For each individual artist, attention to the study of history and the care taken in rewriting of the language used by the artists themselves gives life to an interesting, captivating and educational story. The stories are written in first person to create a direct dialogue between the artist and the reader. Fun events and history are mixed with Pop Facts, which are little-known curiosities about the lives of the main characters.

ANDY IN COMPAGNIA

ANDY WARHOL AVEVA SCELTO DI CONDIVIDERE LA PROPRIA VITA CON UN ANIMALE DA COMPAGNIA. IL BASSOTTO ARCHIE, UNA SORTA DI ALTER EGO PER L'ARTISTA CHE LO CONSULTAVA SPESSO NELLE INTERVISTE, SPECIE QUANDO NON AMAVA LE DOMANDE CHE GLI VENIVANO RIVOLTE. ERANO INSEPARABILI.

SAAAM!

Pare che dobbiamo l'esistenza dell'opera "25 gatti di nome Sam e un micio blu" alla madre di Warhol, Julia Warhola. La donna, infatti, preoccupata per il figlio, si trasferì temporaneamente nel suo appartamento proprio negli anni Cinquanta, e fu assieme che madre e figlio decisero di ritrarre i loro gatti e dedicare loro un volume illustrato. "25 gatti di nome Sam e un micio blu", per l'appunto.

Volevo fissare in un ritratto un personaggio che compiva un'azione banale, ma per me importante.

Warhol molto tempo prima che Stanley Kubrick girò la prima versione del film Arancia Meccanica, Ccon tre mila dollari, acquisì i diritti del famoso libro di Anthony Burgess e filmato Vynil (uscito nel 1965). Kubrick avrebbe debuttato qualche anno più tardi, nel 1971.

I critici dicevano che i miei primi film erano come quadri che, invece di essere appesi, venivano proiettati su una parete bianca. Il cinema si ricollegava alla pittura... e questo mi rendeva felice!

FUN FACTS ABOUT THE LIFE OF FRIDA KAHLO

The first-person narrative aims to create greater empathy with readers, while a detailed study allowed the authors to reconstruct the language used by Frida Kahlo. The story unfolds through "fun facts" to make the work interesting.
