"King Tut, Tutankhamon is back" is the new book series by bestselling author Philip Osbourne, who is now published in 56 countries and has 3 TV adaptations underway. The author has created an inclusive work, starring the little pharaoh Tutankhamon who finds himself living in the present day in a society full of prejudices. KING TUT
TUTANKHAMON IS BACK!
KIDS

Young Tut does not want to become a pharaoh, the role to which he has been predestined since birth; instead, he dreams of escaping from Ancient Egypt to reach the "parallel world", that is, the "modern world". He will succeed thanks to the "time contraption" invented by the eccentric Khum that will teleport him to today's New York. Here, he will attend middle school and meet Jackson, Liberty, Cody, and Owen and discover that he has superpowers that, of course, his friends will try to hide from others. To complicate things, not only his family will be there (strolling through time), but also the fearsome archaeologist Jabir with the inseparable Mummy who will do everything to capture little Tut and turn him into a freak show, as the most incredible discovery of the century.

KING TUT

In a game made of gags and chases, the young Tut, brought to New York directly from Ancient Egypt, will discover that he has various superpowers and will meet the true friendship that knows no difference of gender and origin. With his group of new friends, he will face the most amusing and paradoxical situations: he will have to juggle between his parents who are desperately looking for him and the evil archaeologist Jabir who wants to capture him to expose him as a trophy to world public opinion. Besides... it doesn't always happen to meet a Pharaoh in the flesh...

NERD MONEY

Poor kids who think they can buy everything with... PUF! money gone

Gray's magic money, his invention only creates huge disappointments. If Professor Gray were Santa Claus, he would only give away toy catalogs!

the "nerd money" will dissolve. When the nerd is laughed at, he'll be happy! Do you understand who I have to deal with? Gray is bad on the inside. He is so bad that he retaliates in advance with everyone, even those who have no intention of hurting him. His greatest invention is the portable time machine. It is the size of a cell

"I don't feel like studying. I just want to make money. I don't want to participate. I want to win. When I grow up I don't want to get married. I only want to get divorced. That's me: Norman Battles!" I immediately Google who Norman Battles really is. The truth is even more terrible than the lie. He's not just an arrogant guy... swaggering and bragging. Norman is simply an outlaw. Two years ago he forged money. He got caught solely because he invented the $3 bill, which doesn't exist, with his face on it. He cleared his name by saying, "Inventors can't be punished!" He has no love for anyone and posted a video of his father burping online. He secretly filmed it and the video went viral. It destroyed his father's career as a snake researcher, who admittedly wasn't doing very well in Manhattan, and he didn't care. In fact, he wrote on Instagram, "Dad, now become a rat researcher and you'll make money. There's no shortage of that in New York. Ahhh!"
