The Boy Who Lost His Laugh

Dimity Powell & Heidi Cooper Smith

THEMES: FAMILY, ADOPTION, FOSTER CARE

9781921497162 | Hardcover | 245 x 255 mm | 32 pp |

AGES 4-8 | 390 WORDS | OCT 2025

Tim is always losing things when he travels — he is a foster child, and often moves from one family to the next. One day he realizes he has lost something very precious: his laugh. Then he moves in with the Lee family, and some news arrives that might just help Tim find his laugh again.

The Boy Who Lost His Laugh takes a sensitive look at foster care from the child's perspective, and shows how humour and love can help you bounce back and find what you've been looking for.

The Last Seed Keeper is an empowering read about corruption, environmentalism, and what we would do if nature gave us a second chance.

Ivy is a Groundling, living in the rubble of the past. Skyler lives above the clouds in a haven of technology, wanting for nothing yet knowing there must be something more. Their paths are fixed, in a barren world that has forgotten nature... until Ivy makes a discovery that changes everything - the last living plant on Earth.

The Last Seed Keeper is a tense, heart-pounding adventure about friendship, secrecy, breaking down barriers, questioning everything, and holding onto hope in the darkest of places.

- A timely and urgent book that explores a worst-case scenario of the climate crisis, with an emphasis on hope, positive action and collaboration.
- An excellent classroom resource for teaching environmental impact, sustainability and climate change.
- Provides upper middle grade and early YA readers with a complex, dynamic plot, without the mature themes such as romance and violence that sometimes feature in this age bracket.
- Centres around two strong female characters.

Nobody Likes Monday

Kelly Lee & Amy Calautti

9781922539847 | Hardcover | 245 x 255 mm | 9½ x 10 in | 32 pp | AUG 2024

THEMES: RESILIENCE, EMOTIONAL GROWTH, POSITIVITY, SELF ACCEPTANCE

It's pretty tough being Monday – you're not named after a god like Thursday, and you're certainly not a two-day party like Saturday and Sunday. Instead, you're the start of the week, when people have to wake up early and head back to school and work. Monday even has a pile of complaint letters to prove that nobody likes her. Nobody Likes Monday is a story about the impact of people's perceptions of ourselves, and the fact that we all have value; we just need to learn to see it.

In a world where the days of the week come to life, Monday learns to let go of negativity and accept herself for who she is.

ABOUT THE CREATORS

Kelly Lee is a teacher, educational curriculum designer and mum. She lives in Australia and can see kangaroos over her back fence. Amy Calautti often made up games based around drawing to entertain her younger brother and cousins. She now lives with her small tribe of humans who inspire her every day.

My Heart depicts the many ways a mother's heart can experience love and emotion while her baby journeys through the milestones of growing up. The story uses repetition and subtle variation to reflect the activity and reactions of the mother's heart, and how they change with each mother- child interaction.

The narrative moves through the early years until the child goes off on their first independent activity, a deeply moving moment for all mothers. Beautifully detailed illustrations depict the connection between mother and child, reminding readers that a mother's heart will always be with her children, no matter where they go.

ABOUT THE CREATORS

Larissa Ferenchuk is a writer who loves all things magical and whimsical. She lives in Adelaide with her husband, three children and one very lovely Little Grey Rabbit. Two Rabbits is her debut picture book. Larissa also loves to volunteer her time, including with the Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden Program, where she has assisted many groups of children in the cooking program over the last six years. Prue Pittock studied Art and Design. She began her career working in advertising, which led to her dream job, illustrating and designing record covers for EMI Australia. Prue used her love of a limited colour palette to develop her own distinctive style.
