Pieces of You Turkey (Indigo Kitap)

A missing girl, a secret diary and unsettling revelations . . .

*Today is the first of September, the first day of spring, and it's been sixty-four days since I last saw Sophie Abercrombie.
It's been sixty-four days since anyone saw Sophie Abercrombie.*

The prettiest Sophie.

The missing Sophie.

As Sophie MacKenzie – Mac – confides to her diary, she last saw Sophie Abercrombie kissing James Bacon, their English teacher. Mac has passed this on to the police, but there is plenty she knows about James Bacon that she has kept to herself. She hasn't even told Twiggy, the third Sophie in their once tightknit threesome.

The Trio of Sophies is no more

Praise for Pieces of You

'Eileen Merriman's debut YA novel, Pieces of You, is the kind of book you want to read in one sitting because it is so breathtakingly good. . . this is an acute reading experience. It feels utterly real. It does not smudge the tough stuff. It is kaleidoscopic in both emotion and everyday detail. Detail that animates the lives of two teens . . . Eileen writes with such a flair for dialogue, for family circumstances, for teenage struggles and joys. This is the kind of book that will stay at the front of my mind all week and longer – I recommend it highly.'

– Poetry Shelf

'Pieces of You . . . could well become one of the biggest local YA books of the year. It's intelligent, literate chapter headings reference classical and contemporary books without becoming too scholarly. It's pertinent, witty when it needs to be, thought-provoking and relatable.'

– New Zealand Herald

EILEEN MERRIMAN'S three young adult novels, Pieces of You, Catch Me When You Fall, and Invisibly Breathing, were finalists in the NZ Book Awards for Children and Young Adults in 2018 and 2019, and both Pieces of You and Catch Me When You Fall are Storylines Notable Books. Her first adult novel, Moonlight Sonata, was released in July 2019, with reviewers calling it 'skilfully crafted', and a 'carefully layered and thoughtful drama, with beautifully observed and believable Kiwi characters'.

MAVEN AND REEVE MYSTERY
COMING IN AUGUST 2021

'I was up past midnight finishing this book! The mystery kept me turning the pages, and I felt like I'd known Maven and Reeve forever.'

- Amie Kaufman, New York Times bestselling author of Ice Wolves

A maid with a plan.
A squire with a secret.
A missing jewel.
A kingdom in turmoil.

Maven and Reeve have three days to solve the mystery of the Fire Star. If they don't, they'll lose everything.

This could be a complete disaster . . . or the beginning of a friendship.

Bestselling author A. L. Tait is back with the intriguing story of two unlikely allies and a mystery to solve that could change their lives.

Praise for The Fire Star

'[T]his book didn't leave my hands. I'm looking forward to selling The Fire Star – this middle-grade novel is great for existing fans of A.L. Tait, as well as lovers of historical fiction and adventure aged nine and up.' – Books+Publishing

'This middle grade fiction book is perfect for your younger readers that want a fast-paced adventure that will keep them inspired! . . . I think Maven was my favourite character because of her wit however, I really enjoyed the interaction and friendship of Maven and Reeve together. They were such a good team and the ups and downs of their disastrous predicaments were always a good laugh! . . . I'll definitely be recommending this book to younger readers and I think it would be a great family read-along.' – thebookishkirra.wordpress.com

'Promise that like me, you won't be able to put it down either. I'm itching for the next book and luckily AL Tait is already working on it.' – mumlyfe.com

This book doesn't talk down to the reader, but leads them through a time in history and a language that may not be a familiar, but will nonetheless draw them in. All threads are pulled together at the end to give a satisfying conclusion. A great read. – Glamadelaide

'I thoroughly enjoyed this book and am very eager for the next one in the series, which I am sure will deliver with just as much oomph and gusto. A spectacular read for all readers aged nine and older.' – ashleighmeikle.com.au

'ALLISON TAIT (A.L. TAIT) is the internationally published bestselling author of middle-grade adventure series The Mapmaker Chronicles and The Ateban Cipher. A multi-genre writer, teacher and speaker with many years' experience in magazines, newspapers and online publishing, Allison is the co-host of the top-rating So You Want To Be A Writer podcast produced by the Australian Writers Centre. The outrageous story of three best friends, one greedy mayor and a whole lot of pranking.

Green Peas is our name and pranking's our game!

A symphony of alarm clocks at assembly? Yep, that was us. A plague of fluffy guinea pigs? It's next on our agenda.

But for me, Cookie and Zeke, it's about more than just fun. We're determined to make a difference. And when the adults won't listen, us kids will find a way to be heard – as long as we can stay out of detention!

No activist is too small, no prank too big . . . and things are about to get personal.

Sales Points

- Nat Amore's first book, Secrets of a Schoolyard Millionaire, has been a runaway bestseller with over 10,000 copies sold!
- Nat follows up with a story set in the same town and school, but a new heroine for readers to relate to.

SPOTLIGHT

Solli Raphael

September 2020

Penguin Australia

Paperback – 128pp (198mm x 129mm)

Rights Held: World

Words have the power to empower others.

In his own words, slam poet and social advocate, Solli Raphael shines a spotlight on the concerns teenagers face today, exploring the powerful link between writing and shaping the future.

Let's stand in solidarity.

Following on from the success of Limelight, this new collection of poetry is illuminating the social interests of his generation in a thought-provoking style; a mix of 25 traditional poems and 12 brand new performance poems. It covers topics from connection to bullying and pinpoints climate change as a key concern with poems like Solli's Greenpeace collaboration piece 'Let's Make More Minutes Count!'.

Spotlight also contains five non-fiction chapters with advice, tips and plenty of activities for kids and teens. Solli encourages readers to learn the forms and occupations of writing, discusses how to use and gain a platform, as well as ways to instigate change and become a wordsmith themselves. He shares his experiences, ideas and advice on how the reader can create a sustainable future and discover ways to help create change, while looking at trends such as veganism (plant-based) and zero waste.

Praise for Limelight

'Solli's enthusiasm for poetry is clear in the description of his journey, and slam poetry in particular. Readers will learn how it works and perhaps be inspired to try their hand at slam poetry themselves. Limelight is a great introduction to a new, young writer, and I think we will be hearing more from Solli Raphael in the future.' – Kids' Book Review

At 12, SOLLI RAPHAEL was the youngest winner of the Australian Poetry Slam held at Sydney Opera House annually. A budding humanitarian, he hopes to become an inspirational leader among his peers. Solli enjoys writing powerful and emotive poetry and performing pieces to instigate change in the areas he feels are critical for attention and action such as social equality, the environment and animal protection. Solli loves hanging out with his Chihuahua, Winston, and thrives on challenges such as training for 10 km running events. As well as his school work and performing at festivals and public speaking events, this motivated teen enjoys playing the saxophone, swimming, drama and playing boules with his great-grandmother. He hopes to become a pilot one day. Now 15, Solli is keen to use the platforms of performing and writing to tackle current social issues – big and small. He wants to encourage his generation to participate in conversations about issues that affect their lives, sending out the challenge, be a game changer with me!

Rights Sold: North America (Penguin Random House - Penguin Workshop)

A warm and funny bedtime story where the parents just won't go to sleep by the inimitable Zoë Foster Blake.

Poor Finn is looking forward to drifting off to sleep in his cosy warm bed, when Mummy appears at his bedside wanting a drink. Finn resettles her in her bed and has just fallen asleep, when he's woken again ... this time by Daddy, who wants to sleep in Finn's bed. And so it goes, just when Finn has one parent back to sleep, the other wakes up! When will these two sleep through the night?!

A clever, playful, warm and laugh-out-loud story with a gorgeous ring of authenticity born out of experience. Kids and parents will both enjoy reading and sharing this bedtime story so much!

Back to Sleep is a perfect follow up picture book to No One Likes a Fart and a gorgeous reflection of Zoë's much-loved brand and profile that celebrates and shares the ups and downs of family life.

A beautiful and charming story about the journey of life by bestselling author Mem Fox. Illustrated by the talented Freya Blackwood.

Once upon a time, although this happens all the time, a tiny star fell to earth . . .

This touching and timeless story combines, for the first time, the talents of world-renowned author Mem Fox with the heartwarming illustrations of Freya Blackwood. These two luminaries craft a truly unique and moving story about the journey of life, to be cherished and shared for generations to come.

Praise for The Tiny Star

'Mem Fox's books are like a warm blanket; they have a way of making the world seem a little cosier.' – Sunday Age

'The simple and beautiful story about the cycle of life is told with the utmost tenderness and involves the reader in the journey of a loving family as the narrative follows life's adventures from beginning to end and beyond . . . The love that shines from each page is almost palpable. Babies grow, children play, adults care deeply as they experience immense happiness and grief, and all this is portrayed in the beautiful illustrations. Highly recommended, especially for families to share. 5/5.' – Margaret Hamilton, Books + Publishing

MEM FOX has written over 38 books for adults and children including Possum Magic, which has sold over three million copies and is the bestselling picture book ever in Australia. Mem has been presented with many awards including an AM in the 1993 Australia Day Honours for services to the cultural life of Australia; an SA Great Award for Literature in 2001; the Prime Minister's Centenary Medal in 2003; and she was shortlisted for the Australian of the Year in 2004. She worked as an Associate Professor of Literacy Studies in the School of Education at Flinders University, South Australia, for twenty-four years and is now an international literacy consultant. Mem's books with Penguin include Where is the Green Sheep?, Hunwick's Egg, A Particular Cow, Where The Giant Sleeps, Ten Little Fingers and Ten Little Toes, Hello Baby!, The Goblin and the Empty Chair, A Giraffe in the Bath and most recently Baby Bedtime. Your body is really GROSS – but also pretty AWESOME!

Can you imagine anything more gross than the human body?

Seriously, inside and out, it is DISGUSTING! Blood and guts are bad enough, but there is so much more. We burp and fart. We secrete spit and snot and sweat. We pee! We poo! Everywhere we go, we're shedding bits of ourselves. Skin. Hair. Nails. And bodies are a breeding ground for germs, bacteria, fungus, lice and more.

The Human Body Survival Guide will take you on a weird and wonderful journey and teach you everything you wanted to know about our bodies, and some stuff you didn't want to know! Ever wondered what the biggest organ in the body is? Whether your nose and ears continue to grow after you die? Or what a healthy poo looks like?

Hold on to your insides . . . Here we GO!

Sales Points

- Following on from the very successful The Australia Survival Guide which has sold over 6000 copies since release in October 2019 and was one of the bestselling non-fiction titles for the year.
- Taps into the growth area of children's non-fiction and reference material. The book contains non-fiction content in a fictional framework – the story is driven by a child narrator doing a school project on the human body and is filled with up-to-date information, statistics and real-life stories.
- George's writing adds another dimension to the facts – it's super engaging and very child-oriented.
- Highly designed with an easy-to-read layout, spot colour interiors and illustrations as well as actual photographs. The hardback format makes this a perfect gift.

GEORGE IVANOFF is a Melbourne author who's written more than 100 books for kids and teens, including the i the RFDS adventures and the Other Worlds series. HELEN AND THE GO-GO NINJAS

Ant Sang (Illustrator) and Michael Bennett

July 2018

Penguin (NZ Juvenile)

Paperback – 264pp (230mm x 165mm)

Rights Held: World

Eco-warrior Helen holds the keys to save the world in this award-winning dystopian graphic novel.

Kidnapped by time-travelling ninjas, Helen is thrust into the year 2355 — a ruined future with roving gangs and 'Peace Balls', giant humming devices that enslave and control people's minds.

The Go-Go Ninjas have one goal — to destroy the Peace Balls. They believe that Helen knows how.

Can Helen use her knowledge of the past to help them save the future?

Praise for Helen and the Go-Go Ninjas

'It's an action-packed graphic novel, a speculative tale set three hundred years into New Zealand's future with more than a nod to George Miller's movie Mad Max: Fury Road as well as a hint of Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale... Populated with kick-ass female characters, minimal dialogue, and blow-by-blow action, Helen and the Go-Go Ninjas comes with an important message for society about the dangers of corporate-driven technologies to the health of our planet, and ultimately to the people who live on it.' – Lee Murray – Speculative Fiction Blog

A beguilingly original and satirical debut novel of friendships, imagination, and the bodies we live in.

Lincoln Locke's fifteen-year-old life is turned upside down when he's thrust into bachelor-pad living with his father, after his parents' marriage breaks up, and into an exclusive new school.

Crestfield Academy offers Lincoln a new set of peers – the crème de la crème of gifted individuals, who also happen to be financially loaded – and a place on the swim relay team with a bunch of bullies in Speedos. Homunculus, the little voice inside his head, doesn't make life any easier; nor does Lincoln's growing awareness of a genetic anomaly that threatens to humiliate him at every turn.

As he searches for answers to his big life questions, he turns to the school library, where he finds a nineteenth-century memoir by Edwin Stroud titled My One Redeeming Affliction. The book starts to weave itself into Lincoln's life in alarming and fascinating ways. When he meets Bert McGill, a local junkyard hermit, he finds glimpses of the enigmatic Stroud among the detritus of Bert's life, and starts to piece together a past time of dubious relationships and, as it turns out, redeeming afflictions.

Sales Points

- Audacious, funny and wonderfully inventive, The Origin of Me is a song to friendship, to young love, to the joy of imagination, and to celebrating differences.
- Bernard's writing is visual and colourful, and his take on a coming-of-age story distinctive: there are magical elements to the story that he brings to life in sweet, funny ways.
- A distinctive and universally relatable voice.
- Timely story, exploring high school politics, male friendship, homophobia, sexism, body image and the search for identity and belonging.
- An audacious and inventive story of friendship, young love and bravery, and the celebration of differences, both past and present.
- The writing is visual and colourful and gives a magical twist to the coming-of-age story.

Extract from The Origin of Me

'According to family lore, exactly forty weeks after my father won the prestigious and fiercely contested GravyLog® Pet Food account for his advertising agency, I was born. Whether his victory had inspired the little guys to swim harder or it had more to do with the favourable position my parents had found themselves in is a disputed part of the story. But the date of my birth is not. It was 12 February, the same day that Abraham Lincoln and Charles Darwin were born. I know – incredible. Three illustrious figures sharing a birthday. My parents couldn't decide between Abe and Charlie, so they settled on Lincoln.'

BERNARD GALLATE began his professional life in the animation industry with Hanna-Barbera, later working for Disney and a multimedia agency. After studying acting, he ran climbing tours of the Sydney Harbour Bridge for six years while writing and illustrating books for younger readers. Bernard currently teaches programs on early Sydney life and archaeology at historical sites across the city. The Origin of Me is his first novel. A vivid, fast-paced novel about artificial emotional intelligence.

Since the death of their mother, Hunter, Milly and Coel have come unstuck.

Their father isn't coping either, even though he's the successful head of BIOlogic and is developing a humanoid to enhance human lives.

He brings home Josie, the latest prototype, hoping she might restore the family's happiness. But Josie took a blast during an epic electrical storm and her system is unstable.

Meanwhile, Professor Bishop and his mysterious student Gwin Tang have their own ominous plans for Josie . . .

Sales Points

- An exciting vibrant new voice, from a Maori visual effects artist.
- A moving, fun, human story, with stimulating near-future elements, starring humanoids!
- Explores ideas of family dysfunction and teenage difficulties but through a refreshing device.
- Makes the reader think about what will be the same and what different about the future, about the ethics of computers in our lives and about processing grief and the nature of love.
- The stimulating text design takes a similar approach to that in The Illuminae Files and Zach Dobson's books, ie lively, fun and adding an extra dimension, expressing the text: for example, extra spaces where characters are breathless, becoming large or bold when they shout, becoming code-like for computer-interaction, letters escaping off the page when a computer virus becomes active, explosions spreading across pages, etc

In spite of ambitions to be a Music Composer/Quantum physicist/Geneticist/Knower of Everything Knowable, PAMELA MORROW (Ngati Pu) is a part-time Visual Effects Artist and part-time writer. She began tertiary education in New Zealand in the eighties, starting a degree in Horticultural Science at Massey University, but ended up with a BA in Music and Media Studies from La Trobe University and a Masters in Film, TV and Media Studies from the University of Auckland, where she also took a scriptwriting paper. Hello Strange is her first publication. RUBY TUESDAY

Hayley Lawrence

September 2020

Penguin Australia

Paperback – 352pp (198mm x 129mm)

Rights Held: UK & British Commonwealth (excluding Canada)

Ruby Tuesday explores the difficulties of being a girl growing up in today's world, and how strength and healing can be found in the wildest of places – a celebration of the joy to be found in music and creativity, and of strong, equal friendships and relationships.

Ruby was named after a song about freedom, but she's far from free.

She's trapped by her mum's accident, her mum's past as a famous pianist a distant memory. This was never the plan – both of them invisible and voiceless in a dusty small town. And Ruby wants to be heard.

But that was before Joey Milano. Before that awful party.

Now the only thing Ruby's sure of is that she'll never ever trust anyone again.

When the opportunity of a lifetime comes knocking, and a boy from her past reaches out, Ruby's not fooled.

Some things are broken beyond repair.

Or are they?

Sales points

- Hayley writes believable teens, explores complex experiences and takes the issues she writes about from her own experiences. Perfect for upper secondary YA readers, who enjoy intelligent romance and issues-based coming-of-age novels.
- Hayley's first novel Inside the Tiger was listed as a CBCA Notable book and has been longlisted for Best Young Adult Crime Novel – Sisters in Crime Davitt Award.
- A perfect jumping-off place for vital discussions around consent, relationships and bullying, but also presents models of healthy, positive relationships – including family, romantic relationships and friendships.

Praise for Inside the Tiger

'A... gentle love story that casts an unflinching look at intergenerational crime, capital punishments and justice... Her characters give the book power and urgency.' – Weekend Australian

'An impressive debut novel, a real coming of age story. Lawrence has created authentic, likeable characters who engage the reader and drive the book.' – Magpies magazine

HAYLEY LAWRENCE worked as a lawyer in a commercial firm in Sydney before trading city life for the coast when she married a pilot. Hayley and her husband had many adventures while she worked for a small law firm on the Mid-North Coast of NSW. They now have five vivacious daughters who continue to bring immense joy and utter mayhem to their life. Despite leaving legal work, Hayley could not leave behind the stories of the people she'd encountered. They are stories that provoke questions about the nature of humanity, and it's these questions that haunt her novels.

MALLORY,
MALLORY:
TRICK OR TREAT
COMING 2021

A cunning kidnap and blackmail plot . . . what could go wrong?

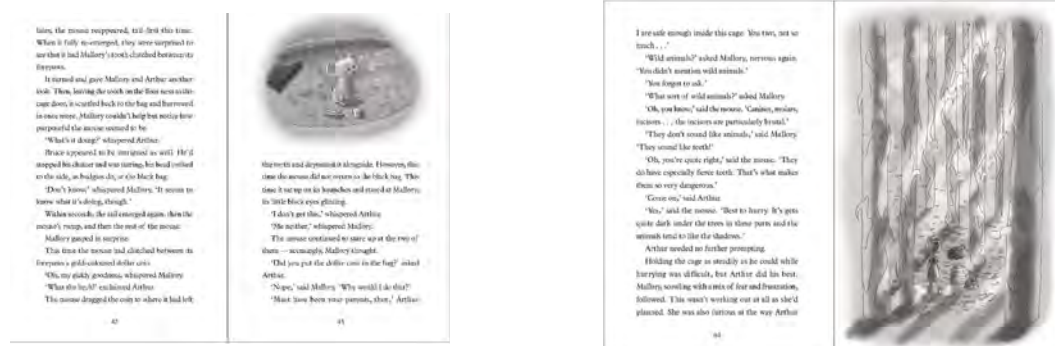

Mallory is a nasty piece of work. Her one friend is Arthur, who only puts up with her because he has no one else.

When Mallory loses a tooth, she comes up with an evil idea to capture and blackmail the Tooth Fairy for an endless supply of money.

But it's never a good idea to meddle with a magical creature, and Mallory and Arthur are about to find out just how bad it can get.

Sales Points

- Richly illustrated throughout, this is a delightful fantasy adventure novel for children 6-10 years, full of sparkling magic and fun with puns.
- Villainous Mallory is a character readers will love to hate, as she plots to kidnap the tooth fairy and deprive all children of 'their dental rights'.
- The novel draws on traditions of Europe and South America in which the tooth fairy is a mouse.
- With traces of Alice in Wonderland and The Wizard of Oz plus a dash of Gulliver's Travels, this is sure to please all fans of magical adventure novels.

JAMES NORCLIFFE is an award-winning New Zealand poet and writer, and the author of several children's fantasy books celebrated for their unexpected plot twists and magical wit. He has won many awards and residencies, most recently the 2018 Creative New Zealand Randall Cottage Writer in Residence in Wellington. His children's novel The Loblolly Boy was published in New Zealand, the United States and Australia, and won the 2010 NZ Post Junior Fiction Award and a Storylines Notable Junior Fiction award.

Derek Dool Supercool 1: Bust A Move

Think of the COOLEST, FUNNIEST, most HANDSOME kid in school, times it by a gazillion and you get DEREK DILBERT DOOL. At least he thinks so . . . Pity he's the only one.

Life's tough when your name's Derek. You're destined to be uncool. But Derek is determined to find something – anything – that will change that. He's sick of being picked last in sports, of not being invited to parties, and of all the cool kids using his freckles as dot-to-dot challenges. Derek is going to find something that will make him SUPERCOOL and nothing is going to stop him.

Derek Dool Supercool 2: Going Viral

After accidentally going viral, Derek is now on a mission to go deliberately VIRAL! After all, what's more SUPERCOOL than being an internet hit? The only problem is, none of his ideas are working out quite as expected. But Derek's not the type to give up. No way! VIRAL VICTORY will be his – even if it's the last thing he ever does.

League of Llamas 1: The Golden Llama

The League of Llamas (LOL) are a group of secret llama agents and they're on a mission to save the world – if only Agent 0011 Phillipe Llamar could stop looking in the mirror at his luxurious fringe and Agent 0013 Lloyd Llamator could resist the temptation to eat everything in his path! Can Phillipe and Lloyd foil the evil plans of Bottomburp and his badger henchmen? The fate of the Llama Republic's most prized relic, the Golden Llama, depends on it!

League of Llamas 2: Llama Impossible

A train speeding out of control, a bold bank robbery and a dazzling diamond heist –trouble is afoot in New Llama City! Luckily, the League of Llamas' top agents, Phillipe and Lloyd, are on the case. And luckily for them, Mama Llama and agent Elloise Llamaresky are on their cases to make sure the job actually gets done.

League of Llamas 3: Undercover Llama

After failing to apprehend some dangerously peck-happy hens, the League of Llamas are continuing their mission undercover! But these aren't any ordinary secret identities –Phillipe, Lloyd and Elloise are joining Bruno Llamars (and his grumpy manager, Wally Chimpopo) as band members on the pop star's next tour . . . to Chickenlovakia.

League of Llamas 4: Rouge Llama

League of Llamas secret agent Phillipe Llamar is on the run! Determined to clear his name after being framed for a crime he didn't commit, he dons a disguise and goes on the hunt for the true criminal – one Ratrick Tailbiter. But the more Phillipe investigates, the less the case makes sense and the more things start becoming suspiciously . . . smelly.

Nelson 1: Pumpkins and Aliens

Meet Nelson . . . he's an ordinary kid, just like you. Everyone thinks he's shy but, really, he's just bored.

Nelson hates vegetables. He hates the smell of them, he hates the look of them. Most of all, he hates eating them. But what if they gave him superpowers? Superpowers he needs when an alien race he made up in class yesterday swoops into town and holds his school hostage, threatening to eat his teacher . . .

Nelson 2: Broccoli and Spies

After Nelson discovers his nemesis – vegetables – are actually the key to his superpowers, he's determined to learn the truth about his family's secret.

But Nelson has other questions too. Like what is the mysterious flying machine at his grandma's farm? And why is his best friend, Olive, acting super strange? And will he really have to eat broccoli to save the day? Yuck!

Edie's Experiments 1: How To Make Friends

I'm Edie and I love science. So when I started at a new school, I decided it could be one giant experiment. Can I give you some advice? Avoid sliming your entire classroom. You could end up in trouble with your teacher, your new classmates and the principal.

Between the great slime fiasco, the apology cookie surprise and the wrinkle cream mix-up, I've discovered making friends isn't an exact science!

Edie's Experiments 2: How to Be the Best

So I was sure that Annie B and I would win the Eco Fair competition. Then Dean Starlight arrived and started sabotaging our project. Now the competition has become an epic science battle of robotic spider attacks, exploding foam and sneaky spying.

Dean thinks he's the best scientist of Class 5Z, but we'll show him . . .

Join Abigail on a rainy-day adventure to explore the marvellous movement of water around the Earth.

Abigail is a curious little girl. She likes to discover the answers to really BIG questions. One rainy morning, she thinks of a question that's SO BIG she can't concentrate until she knows the answer.

"Mummy," she asks, "how did the water get in the clouds?"

To discover the answer, Mummy invites Abigail on an exciting adventure with a tiny drop of lake water. Together they fly up into the sky to explore the marvellous movement of water around the Earth.

By dinner time, Abigail has thought of another big question . . .

Ideal for any child who loves to ask questions, Abigail and the Restless Raindrop is an exquisitely illustrated and beautiful bedtime story doubling as an introduction to the hydrologic (water) cycle.

Puffin (NZ Juvenile)

Paperback – 32pp (245mm x 258mm)

Rights Held: World

Ruru and Kiwi invite you to their midnight forest feast, in this delightful twist on the tale of the Owl and the Pussycat, with enchanting illustrations by the winner of the Storylines Gavin Bishop Award 2019.

The delightful rhyming story of Ruru and Kiwi, who host a midnight forest party for their friends, with award-winning illustrations.

*The Ruru and Kiwi went into the bush, wrapped snug in night's velvety black.
They took some runny manuka honey tied up in a flax-woven sack.*

Drawing on a cast of nocturnal New Zealand creatures, with award-winning illustrations by Amy Haarhoff, Clare Scott's story imagines Edward Lear's famous nonsense poem taking place in a moonlit forest in Aotearoa.

Sales Points

- 2019 Storylines Gavin Bishop Award-winning illustrations by Amy Haarhoff.
- A delightful rhyming story about Ruru and Kiwi, who host a midnight forest party for their friends, to the scheme of The Owl and the Pussycat by Edward Lear
- Includes a glossary about the night-time creatures of the bush
- Suitable for children aged 3–7
- Beautiful atmospheric illustrations with delightful characters – book is printed on woodfree paper.

CLARE SCOTT has published a number of stories as readers with Sunshine Books. Ruru and Kiwi is her first trade picture book. Until recently, she helped young immigrant students learn more about living in New Zealand. But now she's run away north of Auckland to her new home by the beach, where she spends time looking for treasures, shells, clouds, sunsets, rainbows and stories. Author Photo Credit: © Clare Scott

AMY HAARHOFF is a 22-year-old illustration student, studying for her Masters from Falmouth University. She was raised on her dad's macabre storytelling, her mum's art materials, and an endless supply of library books. While researching for a project in a bookshop in July 2018, she came across a picture book that changed her life: Cicada, by Shaun Tan. She walked out with a copy of the book and a determination to create stories of her own. In 2019 her exceptional sample pictures for Ruru and Kiwi won her the Storylines Gavin Bishop Award for Illustration and she has worked every spare hour to complete the full book for publication. TAKING THE LEAD: HOW JACINDA ARDEN WOWED THE WORLD

David Hill and Phoebe Morris (Illustrator)

March 2020

Puffin (NZ Juvenile)

Hardback – 32pp (250mm x 240mm)

Rights Held: World

Meet Jacinda Ardern, the Prime Minister of New Zealand, who hopes the things she's done will help everyone, especially children, to believe that they can do great things too.

Nobody is too young to start changing the world.

When Jacinda was little, she wanted to be a clown. But when she saw schoolmates who didn't have lunch, or even shoes, she knew she had to do something. Some kids laughed at her for wanting to help people so much, or said she couldn't do it. But that didn't stop Jacinda.

She became the Prime Minister of New Zealand, and the world's youngest female leader.

This is the true story of a trailblazer who has inspired people around the planet.

Sales Points

- An inspiring true story for children about Jacinda Ardern, and her meteoric rise to become the world's youngest female leader.

LITTLE HECTOR MEETS MINI MĀUI

Ruth Paul

September 2020

Puffin (NZ Juvenile)

Paperback – 24pp (215mm x 230mm)

Rights Held: World

In the sparkling third adventure of Little Hector, our daring hero meets his special Māui cousins and learns about friendship.

Little Hector is off on a holiday to meet his rare and special cousin, Mini Māui. For the first time in his life, Hector is the BIGGER dolphin. But little Mini thinks he's BOSSY. Will they ever be friends?

Award-winning winning Ruth Paul's stories about Little Hector introduce readers to the world's smallest and rarest dolphin species with creativity, humour and pizzazz. Including facts about the Māui dolphin at the end of the book, Little Hector Meets Mini Māui shows young readers that friendship isn't about size or pecking order, it's about sharing.

Sales Points

- Ruth's previous title I Am Jellyfish won 2018 Picture Book Category in the New Zealand Book Awards for Children and Young Adults.
- Hector and Māui dolphins are both critically endangered animals. There are only sixty-three Māui dolphins over the age of one.
- Listed on the inside back cover are child-friendly facts about the Māui dolphin and how we can help.
- The third book in a charming conservation-themed picture book series.
- This series teaches children, and adults reading with them, about the plight of these national treasures in an engaging and fun way.

A special edition of the bestselling Australian classic picture book that every bookshelf should have.

The imaginary Hippo can do what he likes on the roof. In fact, he does all the things a little girl wishes she could, but is not allowed. When she takes a bath, the hippo takes a shower; when she goes to bed, the hippo watches television on the roof. And when the repair men come to fix the roof, the hippo conveniently disappears, returning of course to eat a very large piece of cake.

Sales Points

- This special 40th anniversary edition will include fantastic cover embellishments of pink flocking on the hippo to make this edition a collector's item.
- Since the release of the first book over 40 years ago, the ageless Hippopotamus on the roof has been reprinted annually, evolved into a series of seven picture books and inspired a junior chapter book, classroom play scripts, a musical stage production and a short movie. The Hippopotamus books have also been translated into Braille and Auslan signing for the hearing impaired and were presented as an official Australian Government gift to the children of Princess Mary of Denmark.

WE LOVE YOU, MAGOO

Briony Stewart

September 2020

Puffin Australia

Hardback – 32pp (248mm x 248mm)

Rights Held: United Kingdom

A classic in the making – joyous and playful, this will be read again and again. Pitched perfectly at the preschooler, just learning the rules who loves being the boss..

Magoo has his own ideas about what a dog should do – in the kitchen, in the car, at dinnertime and bedtime! But there are so many rules! So many things a dog can't do. But wait! Magoo, THIS is for you... Silly doggo, we do love you!

A perfect read-aloud picture book that captures Magoo's energy and emotion in every line.

Sales points

- This is a fresh and friendly illustration direction and adorable new character from WA illustrator, Briony Stewart with a ton of instant appeal and perfect energy for the pre-school age group.
- Magoo matches the perfect pre-school format of I'm a Dirty Dinosaur and Boo! and has the same appeal – another joyous rhyming romp of a book for very young children with potential to build the character.
- Dogs are ever popular characters (Bluey!), Magoo is reminiscent of Clifford the Big Red Dog in style. And as loveable as Hairy Maclairy and Harry the Dirty Dog.
- A pre-school picture book that ticks all the boxes: fun, rhyming rollicking text, commercial and visually very appealing with bright colours, strong adorable child-like character.

BRIONY STEWART is the internationally published author and illustrator of several award-winning books for children. At seventeen, Briony received a scholarship from the Art Gallery of Western Australia towards studying a double degree in Fine Art and Creative Writing at Curtin University. After graduating she won a Queensland based writing prize. The story soon became her first published book, Kumiko and the Dragon, and went on to win an Aurealis award for Children's short fiction in 2008.

In 2012, Briony completed a nine-month creative development fellowship in the UK after being selected by the British Council as one of five young Australian artists excelling in their creative field. Since then, Briony has published numerous successful titles. Most notably, her book Kumiko and the Shadow Catchers won the 2012 Queensland Literary Prize for Children's Fiction.

Passionate about fostering creativity in Australian children, Briony now lectures on children's literature at university and conducts talks and workshops with children across Australia. She currently lives and works in Fremantle, writing, illustrating, and creating amidst the chaos of two cheeky toddlers and a silly dog.

NALA THE KOALA

Illustrated by Penny Ferguson of Min Pin Designs

September 2020

Puffin Australia

Hardback – 24pp (245mm x 257mm)

Rights Held: World

Nala needs a new home, and she needs our help.

Nala the koala has lost her home. She searches far and wide, but some places are too sandy, some are too scary and some are just too small!! Where have all the trees gone?

A sweet story that gently touches on displacement, finding your home and preserving precious environments.

All royalties from sales of this book will be donated to charity to help protect koalas and other Australian animals in need.

Koala Facts

- Koalas are iconic animals native to Australia. They only inhabit forests and woodlands where Eucalyptus trees are present. The recent Australian bushfires have caused the loss of thousands of koalas – over 30% of New South Wales' koala population is said to have been lost and over 50% of Kangaroo Island's.
- Climate change is affecting Australia's koala population with increasing CO2 levels reducing the nutritional quality of eucalyptus leaves.
- Deforestation and the increasing frequency and intensity of droughts are forcing koalas to go in search of water or new habitats, making them vulnerable to wild and domestic predators, disease and road traffic.
- Koalas are on the verge of being 'functionally extinct' with the World Wildlife Fund predicting extinction by 2050 if the destruction of their habitat continues.

STOP SURVIVING START FIGHTING

Jazz Thornton

March 2020

Penguin Random House New Zealand

Trade Paperback – 272 pp (234mm x 153mm)

Rights Held: World

A hard-hitting, thought-provoking account of surviving suicide attempts and moving on to a better life, which provides practical help and inspiration to anyone affected by depression or suicide.

Jazz Thornton first attempted to take her own life at the age of 12. Multiple attempts followed and she spent time in psychiatric wards and under medical supervision as she rode the rollercoaster of depression and anxiety through her teenage years – yet the attempts continued.

Find out what Jazz learned about how her negative thought patterns came to be, and how she turned those thoughts – and her life – around. Who and what helped, and what didn't help. The insights she gives will help create greater understanding of those grappling with mental illness, and provide support to those around them who desperately want to help.

Jazz went on to attend film school, and to co-found Voices of Hope, a non-profit organisation dedicated to helping those with mental health issues and show them there is a way forward. She creates online content to provide hope and help.

Her first video Dear Suicidal Me has had over 80 million views all around the world. She went on to create Jessica's Tree, a web series that follows the 24 hours between a friend, Jess, going missing and the discovery of her body. It provides insights into Jessica's struggles, to help people better understand those suffering from depression. Jessica's Tree was viewed more than 230,000 times in the two months following its release in March 2019 and immediately began winning international recognition and awards, including the Huawei Mate30 Pro New Zealand Television Awards 2019 Best Web Series.

The process and the delicate decisions that had to be made to create Jessica's Tree have themselves been documented in a film about Jazz called The Girl on the Bridge, due for release early in 2020.

The Super Sidekicks are back! Prepare for another amazing adventure from New York Times bestselling Australian author, Gavin Aung Than.

The Super Sidekicks just saved the world and now they've been invited to join H.E.R.O. – the Heroic Earth Righteousness Organisation – an exclusive club for the planet's most famous superheroes. But before they can become members, the team must pass the hardest challenge in the universe, a test so scary and difficult only the truly heroic can survive.

Sales Points

- SUPER SIDEKICKS is a fun new series full of action, adventure, laughs and friendship. It's a tongue-in-cheek take on the current superhero craze dominating pop culture. This series will always put fun and humour first. Goofy facial expressions, slapstick jokes and superhero parody is what SUPER SIDEKICKS will have in spades. Yes, there will be real emotional stakes, but the books will be light in tone and leave the reader with a smile on their face.
- Let's face it – kids don't pick up a superhero book for romance and long strolls on the beach, they pick it up for wall-to-wall action! SUPER SIDEKICKS will always deliver on big battles, kung-fu combat, nail-biting suspense and jaw-dropping spectacle.
- SUPER SIDEKICKS are more than a team – togetherness is more important than anything else.

GAVIN AUNG THAN is a freelance cartoonist based in Perth, Australia. His webcomic Zen Pencils, a cartoon blog which adapts inspirational quotes into comic stories, has been featured by The Washington Post, The Huffington Post, Slate, Buzzfeed, Gawker and Brain Pickings, and was named one of the top 100 websites of 2013 by PC Mag. Zen Pencils has also been collected into New York Times bestselling books. His first series for children, Super Sidekicks, grew out of Gavin's long-time obsession with superheroes. Author Photo Credit: © Wendy Cartwright Photography

Toffle Towers 2: The Great River Race

Chegwin's adventures at Toffle Towers continue when, one by one, his hotel staff are 'reverse mugged' by two mysterious men. Chaos ensues and it's Chegwin's job to get to the bottom of these attacks before Toffle Towers loses all its hard-earned guests.

Meanwhile, the town of Alandale is preparing for the annual Great River Race. Once Chegwin discovers his saboteur is no other than Brontessa Braxton, owner of the rival hotel in town, Chegwin finds himself preparing to go head to head with her in the Great River Race to save his beloved staff and Toffle Towers.

Toffle Towers 3: Order in the Court

The fun and frolics continue at Toffle Towers when all of Alandale is snowed in, but guests' precious belongings start to go missing. Is there a thief staying at the hotel? To keep the Toffle Towers guests entertained while they're stuck indoors, and try to catch the culprit, Chegwin puts on a talent show with a hefty wodge of cash as the prize.

To make things worse for the Toffle Towers team, Brontessa Braxton is up to her old tricks again, and Chegwin must beat her in court if he's to save Toffle Towers from yet another takeover attempt. Will Chegwin come up with a plan in time? And will he ever find the missing room and the hotel's mystery guest?

JACQUELINE HARVEY worked in schools for many years but has had a passion for storytelling since she was a child. She is the author of the popular Alice–Miranda and Clementine Rose series, which have sold over one million copies in Australia alone. Her books have received numerous short–listings and awards while her picture book, The Sound of the Sea, was a CBCA Honour Book.

Jacqueline speaks to thousands of young people at schools and festivals around the world, and says the characters in her books are often made up of the best bits of children she's met over the years. While she is not a twin, like Kensy and Max she does have excellent powers of observation and has always thought she'd make a great spy.

Jacqueline lives in Sydney and is working on more Alice-Miranda and Kensy and Max adventures, and some exciting new projects too.

What do you do when your instincts and obligations pull you in opposite directions?
When there are multiple leads, which one do you follow?

After a school excursion goes horribly wrong, Kensy and Max are left with a sneaking suspicion that the incident was no accident. But there's no time for investigation as the twins are whisked away to Switzerland on a fully sanctioned Pharos mission.

Upon landing in Zermatt, Kensy and Max are tasked with infiltrating the Van Leer family. Strange as the Van Leers are, proof of their misdeeds is scarce. And when a surprising figure appears in the ski town, it seems there is more than one mystery to solve. Kensy and Max are on a mission for justice and won't stop until it's served.

Praise for The Peski Kids Series

'Readers may rest assured that this latest episode in The Peski Kids once again passes the snort-laugh test with flying colours. There is something truly inspired about these completely kooky characters.' – Sue Warren, Just So Stories

'The smart play with language and meaning is perfect for the upper primary child. We want our readers to be exposed to rich vocabulary. The book demands active thinking too . . . Even though The Peski Kids: Near extinction seems to be about tough, naughty kids who go against the grain, it is also about love, family, right and wrong and shades of grey.' – Wendy Jeffery, Read Plus

R.A. SPRATT is the author of The Peski Kids, Friday Barnes and The Adventures of Nanny Piggins. In her previous life she was a television writer. Unlike the Peski kids, R.A. Spratt never fights with her brother, but only because he moved to Hong Kong to get away from her. R.A. lives in Bowral, NSW, where she has three chickens, two goldfish and a dog. She also has a husband and two daughters. For more information, visit raspratt.com

In this exciting conclusion to the bestselling Showtym Adventures series, Amanda, Kelly and Vicki go on a road trip to find their dream ponies!

Nine-year-old Amanda is thrilled when her parents announce plans to travel the length of the country in search of a Grand Prix show jumper for Vicki, as well as a new pony each for Kelly and Amanda.

From wild beaches and lake swims to panning for gold and high-country musters, each day on the road brings the three sisters new experiences – and new challenges. Will Amanda and her new pony Syd survive the dangerous overnight cattle muster? And will Vicki find the Grand Prix pony of her dreams?

In this story inspired by the Wilson Sisters' early years, Vicki, Kelly and Amanda first taste the freedom of exploring the world on horseback.

Sales Points

- A bestselling series for children ages 7-10 years that has sold over 40,000 copies in ANZ.
- Each engaging story in the series is inspired by a beloved childhood pony of the Wilson Sisters.
- Each title contains new riding tips and information about caring for ponies.
- Readers love discovering each pony's personality and the challenges, problems and successes the girls encounter with training and riding them.

Born in Whangamata, KELLY WILSON relocated to Northland with her family at the age of five. Having grown up around horses, she competed in show jumping to Pony Grand Prix level, before focusing on her creative talents. She won a scholarship to Auckland University of Technology and graduated in 2009 with a Bachelor of Graphic Design, going on to become an award-winning Photographer and designer. She is the bestselling author of four biographical non-fiction books, For the Love of Horses, Stallion Challenges, Mustang Ride and Saving the Snowy Brumbies, a children's picture book Ranger the Kaimanawa Stallion and a junior chapter book series Showtym Adventures. With her sisters Vicki and Amanda, Kelly has starred in the hit-rating TV series, Keeping up with the Kaimanawas, following their work taming New Zealand's wild Kaimanawa horses, and travelled to America and Australia to rescue and tame wild horses.
