IT'S GIRLS LIKE YOU, MICKEY

By Patti Kim
Imprint: Atheneum Books for Young Readers

Mickey navigates the pitfalls, heartbreaks, and triumphs of seventh grade in this uplifting book by the author of I'm Ok, which award-winning author Gene Luen Yang praised as “funny and heartfelt.”

For the first time in her confident, bold life, Mickey McDonald is nervous about starting school. Her best friend, Ok, has moved away; her father has probably left town for good; and she can’t afford to go back-to-school shopping. But she’s going to make the best of things, because that’s the kind of person Mickey is.

After a rough start, Mickey finds a new friend in Sun Joo, who has just moved to town. But things get complicated when a mean girl also takes a shine to Sun Joo. Suddenly Mickey is facing her first ever friend breakup, and it’s getting harder and harder to keep her chin up. Luckily, Mickey’s made of tough stuff.

Kenny & the Beasts

By Tony DiTerlizzi

Imprint: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers

The lavishly illustrated follow-up to the charming and humorous Kenny & the Dragon from the creative mind behind the #1 New York Times bestselling Spiderwick Chronicles.

What can come between two best friends?

Since we last visited the once-sleepy village of Roundbrook a lot has changed for Kenny Rabbit. For starters, he's got a dozen new sisters! His friends are at different schools and Sir George is off adventuring. It seems the only thing Kenny can truly count on is his dragon buddy, Grahame. No matter how busy, crowded, or noisy life gets, it's nice to know Kenny will always have his best friend by his side.

That's before Dante arrives. Dante is a legendary mantichore and an old friend of Grahame's. Old friends spend a lot of time catching up. And that catching up does not involve Kenny.

But there's a witch to defeat, a pal to rescue, and a mysterious book to unlock. And those are quests for best friends, not old friends.

Right?

JUST BEYOND THE VERY, VERY FAR NORTH

By Dan Bar-el
Illustrated by Kelly Pousette
Imprint: Atheneum Books for Young Readers

Join Duane the polar bear and his friends for more delightful adventures in the Very, Very Far North.

Past the place where icebergs shiver, beyond the spot that snowflakes prefer to avoid, you will find the Very, Very Far North. It's a place where no adventure is too big or too small for Duane the polar bear and his charming group of friends. You might like to share a delicious snow delight with warmhearted Duane. While you're slurping away, if C. C. suddenly asks you where you've come from, it's not because she's nosy; she is simply gathering scientific data. If Handsome, the musk ox, pays a visit, a quick hair-combing is highly recommended. Should you notice a quiet caribou grazing nearby, well, that's just Boo's way of saying hello.

And if a less than friendly visitor arrives to sneak, shove, and shake things up, Duane and the others might discover that life isn't always as peaceful as a late-midafternoon nap. Fortunately, they know that change is as much a part of life as picnics and Tuesdays and cozy stories shared among friends.

THE GREAT PET HEIST

By Emily Ecton
Illustrated by David Mottram
Imprint: Atheneum Books for Young Readers

Butterbean the dachshund and her friends must pull off the heist of the century to keep from being sent to the pound.

Butterbean knew she wasn't always a good dog. Still, she'd never considered herself a BAD dog until the morning that her owner, Mrs. Food, fell in the hallway. Admittedly, the tile was slipperier than usual because Butterbean had just thrown up on it. (To be fair, she'd spent most of the morning chasing her tail.)

But now Butterbean and her fellow pets have to come up with a grand plan to support themselves in case Mrs. Food is unable to keep taking care of them. When they discover a mysterious man in their building who seems to have lots of loot, they plan a heist. Oscar the mynah bird is the brains of the operation. Walt the cat has the necessary slyness and slink. Marco and Polo are the reconnaissance rats. And Butterbean . . . well, no one would ever suspect the cute, slobbery one, right?

TUNE IT OUT

By Jamie Sumner

Imprint: Atheneum Books for Young Readers

From the author of the acclaimed Roll with It comes a moving middle-grade novel about a girl with a sensory processing disorder who has to find her own voice after her world turns upside down.

Lou Montgomery is a talented singer, or so her mother tells her and anyone else who will listen. But Lou can only hear the fear in her own voice. She's never liked crowds or loud noises or even high fives; in fact, she's terrified of all these things, which makes her pretty sure there's something wrong with her.

But when Lou crashes their pickup on a dark and snowy road, child services separate the mother-daughter duo. Now she has to start all over again at a fancy private school. With help from an outgoing new friend, her aunt and uncle, and the school counselor, she begins to see things differently. A sensory processing disorder isn't something to be ashamed of, and music might just be the thing that saves Lou—and maybe her mom, too.

NIGHTINGALE

By Deva Fagan

Imprint: Atheneum Books for Young Readers

From the author of Rival Magic comes a middle-grade fantasy about unexpected heroes, the power of friendship, and one boisterous enchanted sword.

Twelve-year-old Lark is determined to escape her squalid life at a boarding house, but she needs to find the money to do it. Her grand plan? To steal her fortune from the Royal Museum.

Unfortunately, the robbery doesn't go as planned, and Lark ends up stealing a magical sword right out from under the nose of Prince Jasper. Lark soon discovers that the sword has a mind of its own and has chosen her to be the next Nightingale, a fabled hero who must vanquish an ancient evil that is waking after centuries of sleep.

But working alone has its limitations, and Lark will need the help of her boarding-house roommates if she wants to defeat the villainous forces that threaten to dismantle everything she holds dear.

PEPPER'S RULES FOR SECRET SLEUTHING

By Briana McDonald

Imprint: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers

Overzealous amateur sleuth Pepper Blouse investigates a shocking family secret and unravels the mystery of her developing feelings for girls.

Amateur detective Pepper Blouse has always held true to the first rule of mystery solving—your loyalty is to the case—even if it means pushing people away. But when the results of Pepper's latest case cost her any hope of the girl she likes returning her feelings, she decides that maybe she should lie low for a while.

That is, until her great-aunt Florence passes away under mysterious circumstances. And even though her dad insists there's nothing to investigate, Pepper can't just ignore rule fourteen: Trust your gut. But there's nothing in the rulebook that could've prepared her for this.

Maybe it's time to stop playing by the rules.

MUFFLED

By Jennifer Gennari

Imprint: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers

Ten-year-old Amelia learns to cope with her noise sensitivity and to step outside her comfort zone at school and at home, in this heartwarming middle-grade story perfect for fans of If This Were a Story and El Deafo.

Amelia has always worn noise-canceling headphones to help with her sound sensitivity, but now that she's going into fifth grade, her parents want her to stop wearing them. Amelia tries wearing a pair of earmuffs instead, but she still struggles with noise and learning to play an instrument—or as Amelia sees it, making noise on purpose.

Things start to take a turn for the better when Amelia unexpectedly befriends a girl named Madge in music class. It's not long, though, before Amelia's quiet nature clashes with Madge's loud personality. And when Madge disappears after an argument, Amelia fears Madge might be in trouble. If she's going to help her new friend, Amelia will have to find a way to let in the noisy world she's muffled for so long.

THE DREAM WEAVER

By Reina Luz Alegre

Imprint: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers

Twelve-year-old Zoey navigates the tricky waters of friendship while looking for a way to save her grandfather's struggling business in this heartwarming coming-of-age debut novel perfect for fans of Kristi Wientge, Donna Gephart, and Meg Medina.

Zoey comes from a family of dreamers. Her dad is constantly chasing jobs that never seem to work out. Zoey has always been willing to go along with whatever grand plans her dad dreams up—even if it means never staying in one place long enough to make real friends. But this summer Dad is leaving Zoey and older brother José behind at the Jersey Shore with their Poppy.

At first, Zoey feels as lost and alone as she did after her mami died. But soon she's distracted by an even bigger problem: the bowling alley that Poppy has owned for decades is in danger of closing! After befriending a group of local kids practicing for a bowling tournament, Zoey hatches a grand plan of her own to save the bowling alley and weave everyone's dreams together . . . until unexpected events turn Zoey's plan into one giant nightmare. Now, with her new friends counting on her, and with her family's happiness hanging in the balance, Zoey will have to decide what her own dream is—and how hard she's willing to fight for it.

KATARINA BALLERINA

By Tiler Peck and Kyle Harris

Imprint: Aladdin

A young girl lives out her ballerina dreams in this graceful start to a new series from New York City Ballet principal dancer Tiler Peck and actor Kyle Harris.

Ten-year-old Katarina is a New York City girl through and through, but she really wants to shake up her usual routine. Her big dream? To become a successful ballerina. With the help of a few new friends, Katarina finally puts on her first pair of ballet shoes, and she's determined to make it work. But her feet don't quite move the way she would like them to, the twirls and spins make her dizzy, and her classmates aren't exactly welcoming. When the head of the dance studio announces that there will be a competition to earn a spot in an upcoming dance camp, Katarina knows it could be her big chance.

Can this tiny dancer figure out how to shine in her own unique way?

New from the team that brought you FIVE FEET APART

By Mikki Daughtry and Rachael Lippincott
Imprint: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers

From the team that brought you #1 New York Times bestseller Five Feet Apart comes another gripping romance that asks: What happens when you find the person of your dreams, but reality gets in the way?

Kyle and Kimberley have been the perfect couple all through high school, but when Kimberley breaks up with Kyle on the night of their graduation party, his entire world upends—literally. His car crashes, and when he awakes, he has a brain injury. Kimberley is gone. And no one in his life could possibly understand.

Until Marley. Marley is suffering from her own loss, a loss she thinks was her fault. And when their paths cross, Kyle sees in her all the unspoken things he's feeling.

As Kyle and Marley work to heal their wounds, their feelings for each other get stronger. But Kyle can't shake the sense that he's headed for another crashing moment that will blow up his life as soon as he's started to put it back together.

And he's right.

THE MEET-CUTE PROJECT

By Rhiannon Richardson

Imprint: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers

Mia's friends love romcoms. Mia hates them.

Mia thinks romcoms are silly, contrived, and not at all realistic. Besides, there are more important things to worry about—like how to handle living with her bridezilla sister, Sam, who's never appreciated Mia, and surviving junior year while juggling every school club offered and acing all her classes.

So when Mia is tasked with finding a date to her sister's wedding, her options are practically nonexistent. Mia's friends, however, have an idea. It's a little crazy, a little out there, and a lot inspired by the movies they love that Mia begrudgingly watches too.

Mia just needs a meet-cute.

RECOMMENDED FOR YOU

By Laura Silverman

Imprint: Margaret K. McElderry Books

When self-proclaimed nonreader Jake starts working at the same bookstore as Shoshanna, she becomes determined to beat him in the race for the holiday top bookseller bonus no matter the cost, in this charming and hilarious romcom for fans of Jenny Han and Morgan Matson.

Shoshanna Greenberg loves her job at Once Upon, the bookstore in her local mall. That is, until new hire (and nonreader) Jake Kaplan joins the staff. Besides being underwhelmed by her peppiness, he also happens to be annoyingly attractive and good at selling books. What's more, Jake challenges Shoshanna for the store's cash prize for the most successful bookseller, cash Shoshanna desperately needs to cover car repairs.

As far as Shoshanna's concerned, he's the ultimate villain. But there are two sides to every story, and Jake and Shoshanna are one plot twist away from discovering they might be more on the same page than either expects. . . .

LIES LIKE POISON

By Chelsea Pitcher

Imprint: Margaret K. McElderry Books

When Belladonna is charged with a murder she conspired to commit—but didn't—it's up to her co-conspirators to uncover the truth and clear her name in this high-stakes whodunnit for fans of Riverdale and Kara Thomas's The Cheerleaders.

Raven, Poppy, Lily, and Belladonna were best friends once. They were so fiercely protective of one another, they would've done anything—even murder. Poppy, Lily, Belladonna—just one petal of each in a cup of morning tea, and Raven's abusive wicked stepmother would have been gone. But one girl gets cold feet, the plan is called off, and their friendship slowly splinters.

Years later, Raven's stepmother is found dead. But it's only Belladonna in her tea, and there's enough evidence to put Belladonna herself away for good. Now she must unravel a complicated web of tumultuous history, betrayal, and murder . . . or face a lifetime of wrongful imprisonment.

WHAT I LIKE ABOUT YOU

By Marisa Kanter

Imprint: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers

Can a love triangle have only two people in it? In this debut novel that's perfect for fans of Jenny Han and Morgan Matson, Marisa Kanter hilariously and poignantly explores what happens when Internet friends turn into IRL crushes.

Halle and her online best friend, Nash, can talk about anything . . . except who she really is.

Online, Halle is known as Kels, the enigmatically cool creator of a YA book blog that pairs epic custom cupcakes with covers and reviews. Kels has everything Halle doesn't: friends, tons of confidence, and Nash.

That is, until Halle moves to a small town and finds herself face-to-face with real, human, not-behind-a-screen Nash. If Halle reveals her identity, it will ruin the magic of their digital friendship. But not telling him means that it can never be anything more. Because while she starts to fall for Nash as Halle . . . he's in love with Kels.

MAGIC DARK AND STRANGE

By Kelly Powell
Imprint: Margaret K. McElderry Books

A girl with the ability to raise the dead must solve the mystery behind a magical timepiece in order to stop a series of murders, in this thrilling new adventure.

Catherine Daly brings back the dead for final goodbyes with their loved ones. But this magic comes with a price, for with every hour that a ghost is brought back, Catherine loses an hour from her own life.

When Catherine is tasked with collecting an old timepiece from a grave, she is stunned to find that the grave contains the body of a teenage boy and no timepiece at all. When Catherine raises him in search of answers, the boy is resurrected—not as a ghost, but permanently, and with no memory of how he died. Now dangerous enemies are closing in as Catherine attempts to unravel the connection between the undead boy and the timepiece—whose location has suddenly become a matter of life and death.

BASED ON THE CW TV SERIES NANCY DREW

THE CURSE

By Micol Ostow
Imprint: Simon Pulse

Based on the TV series Nancy Drew, the most-watched new show on the CW!

*A curse is just a mystery dressed up in a sharp, stern warning.
And everyone knows that I love a mystery.*

In this prequel novel, the beloved teen sleuth investigates a sinister, once-dormant curse that may be threatening her town. This is Nancy Drew for today, perfect for fans of Riverdale, The Chilling Adventures of Sabrina, and Stranger Things!

Nancy Drew isn't one for ghost stories. So when the annual Horseshoe Bay Naming Day celebration is threatened by eerie warnings of an old curse, Nancy is sure someone—someone human—is behind them. And no way is she letting this person stand in the way of her best friend, Daisy, finally getting her day in the spotlight as the lead in the much-anticipated Naming Day reenactment.

But as Nancy begins investigating, the so-called marks of the curse become bolder and more sinister. A vandalized locker and ominous notes are one thing, but soon enough lives—including Nancy's own—are at stake. Though the dreams and eerie visions plaguing Nancy are certainly just products of her own mind . . . right?

All old towns have their traditions and histories, but as Nancy will soon discover, those don't always tell the whole story.

THOSE WHO PREY

By Jennifer Moffett

Imprint: Atheneum Books for Young Readers

College freshman Emily is seduced into a campus cult and must survive a deadly mission trip to Italy in this psychological thriller from debut author Jennifer Moffett.

Emily expected college to be the place where she finally belonged. Instead, she walks the campus alone, still not having found her place or her people so far away from home.

Then the Kingdom finds her. The Kingdom, an exclusive on-campus group, offers Emily everything she expected out of college and more, including a mission trip to Italy. But the trip is not what Emily thought: the Kingdom's rituals become increasingly manipulative and dangerous . . . and someone ends up dead.

Part thriller and part coming-of-age story, Those Who Prey is a riveting and unsettling look at the lure of cults, questioning just how far we're willing to go to find where we belong.

STORM THE EARTH

By Rebecca Kim Wells

Imprint: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers

Maren and her girlfriend, Kaia, set out to rescue Sev and free the dragons from the corrupt emperor in the explosive finale to the journey that began with Shatter the Sky.

Maren's world was shattered when her girlfriend, Kaia, was abducted by the Aurati. After a daring rescue, they've finally been reunited, but Maren's life is still in pieces: Kaia seems more like a stranger than the lover Maren knew back home; Naava, the mother of all dragons, has retreated into seclusion to recover from her wounds, leaving Maren at a loss for how to set the rest of the dragons free; and worst of all, her friend Sev has been captured by the emperor's Talons.

As a prisoner of Zefed, Sev finds himself entangled in a treacherous game of court politics. With more people joining the rebellion, whispers of a rogue dragon mistress spreading, and escape seeming less likely with each passing day, Sev knows that it won't be long before the emperor decides to make an example of him. If he's to survive, he'll have to strike first—or hope Maren reaches him in time.

With the final battle for Zefed looming, Maren must set aside her fears, draw upon all she's learned about her dragon-touched abilities, and face her destiny once and for all. But when the fighting is over and the smoke clears, who will be left standing?

10 THINGS I HATE ABOUT PINKY

By Sandhya Menon
Imprint: Simon Pulse

The delightful follow-up to When Dimple Met Rishi and There's Something about Sweetie follows Pinky and Samir as they pretend to date—with disastrous and hilarious results.

Pinky Kumar wears the social justice warrior badge with pride. From raccoon hospitals to persecuted rock stars, no cause is too esoteric for her to champion. But a teeny-tiny part of her also really enjoys making her conservative, buttoned-up corporate lawyer parents cringe.

Samir Jha might have a few . . . quirks remaining from the time he had to take care of his sick mother, like the endless lists he makes in his planner and the way he schedules every minute of every day, but those are good things. They make life predictable and steady.

Pinky loves lazy summers at her parents' Cape Cod lake house, but after listening to them harangue her about the poor decisions (aka boyfriends) she's made, she hatches a plan. Get her sorta-friend-sorta-enemy, Samir—who is a total Harvard-bound Mama's boy—to pose as her perfect boyfriend for the summer. As they bicker their way through lighthouses and butterfly habitats, sparks fly, and they both realize this will be a summer they'll never forget.

OF PRINCES AND PROMISES

By Sandhya Menon
Imprint: Simon Pulse

From the New York Times bestselling author of When Dimple Met Rishi comes the second installment in a brand-new series set at an elite boarding school. Each book offers a contemporary spin on a fairy tale, and this one's a delightful, romantic twist on The Frog Prince.

Caterina LaValle is determined to show she's still the queen of St. Rosetta's Academy. Sure, her crown may be slightly askew after what Alaric did to her last semester, but she's a LaValle. She'll find a way to march right back in there, perfect face back on, her hands clutching the strings to the whole puppet show. This time, she's going to be untouchable.

Rahul Chopra knows that moment he shared with Caterina LaValle at the homecoming dance meant something. Surely, she feels it too. He's a little uncertain how someone like him (socially inept to a point way past "adorkable") could fit into her world, but he's loved Caterina for years. He knows they'll find a way.

When a school project brings this unlikely pair together, Caterina and Rahul find themselves caught up in a fake-dating scheme that ends up feeling truer and more romantic than either of them expected.

A PHO LOVE STORY

By Loan Le

Imprint: Simon Pulse

When Dimple Met Rishi meets Ugly Delicious in this funny, smart romantic comedy, in which two Vietnamese-American teens fall in love amid their families' age-old feud about their competing neighboring restaurants.

If Bao Nguyen had to describe himself, he'd say he was a rock. Steady and strong, but not particularly interesting. His grades are average, his social status unremarkable. He works at his parents' pho restaurant, and even there, he is his parents' fifth favorite employee.

If Linh Vu had to describe herself, she'd say she was a firecracker. Stable when unlit, but full of potential for joy and spark and fire. She loves art, and she dreams of making a career of it one day. The only problem? Her parents rely on her in ways they're not willing to admit, including expecting her to work practically full-time at their family's pho restaurant.

For decades, the Vus and the Nguyens have been at odds, having owned competing, neighboring pho restaurants. Bao and Linh have resolved never to befriend each other, for fear of pushing too far and bringing on undue heartbreak. But then a chance encounter brings Linh and Bao closer despite their best efforts, leading sparks to fly. Can Linh and Bao's love survive in the midst of feuding families and complicated histories?

GIRL, UNFRAMED

By Deb Caletti

Imprint: Simon Pulse

A summer in San Francisco with her mother turns dark for Sydney Reilly in this slow burn thriller by National Book Award finalist and Printz Honoree Deb Caletti

Sydney Reilly has a bad feeling about going home to San Francisco even before she gets on the plane. Because her mother is Lila Shore, the Lila Shore, sex object and film star, who prizes her beauty above all else . . . certainly above her daughter.

Making things worse, Lila's involved with the dangerous Jake, an art dealer who loves all beautiful objects, and because Sydney herself has suddenly become beautiful, she feels more eyes on her, good eyes and bad ones—the sweet eyes of Nicco Ricci, the unsettling eyes of the construction worker next door, Jake's eyes, and even Lila's.

It's unnerving—how beauty is complicated, and objects have histories, and you can be looked at without ever being seen. But real danger, crimes of passion, the kind of stuff where someone gets killed—it mostly happens in the movies, Sydney is sure. Until the night something life-changing happens on the stairs that lead to the beach, when Sydney learns a terrible truth: beautiful objects can break.
