KIWI

WRITTEN BY BARBARA SUPEŁ

ILLUSTRATED BY AGATA DOBKOWSKA

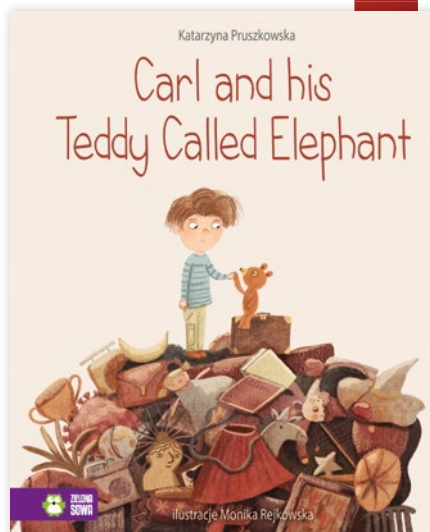

The series of exceptional picture books about superhero Kiwi. All the children love this helpful and friendly bird. Kiwi helps the children to get used to fears. The bird also shows us how to behave at a party. Those rhyming, funny stories in unobtrusive way show that everybody is afraid of something and... belching at the table happens to the best ones.

Text written by very talented Barbara Supeł („Jenny”, „Stan Knotty”, „Elves to the Rescue”, „Great Insects”, „Tale About Gnomes”) and illustrated by equally gifted Agata Dobkowska.

Kiwi shows that you don't need extraordinary skills to be a superhero. It is enough to support your friends, give advice, and sometimes just be in the right place and time. Children will learn many lessons from the book.

THE STRANGEST PHOBIAS

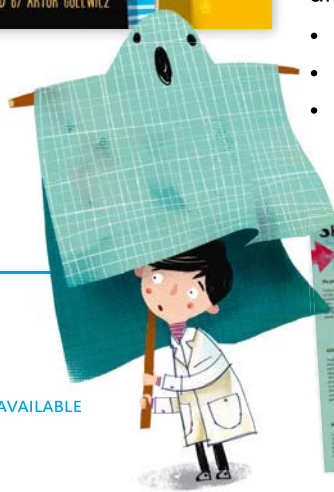

WRITTEN BY MARCIN PRZEWÓŹNIAK
ILLUSTRATED BY ARTUR GULEWICZ

Some of us don't even walk out of bed on Friday the 13th. Others see spiders as those enormous creatures that are just waiting to bite them. And some people start shivering just thinking about a messy room! Why do we sometimes fear those things? Where do such fears come from? And what is the difference between fear and phobia?

- An illustrated non-fiction book about the strangest phobias in the world
- It describes where phobias come from and why some people experience them
- Topic cleverly presented through infographics
